Product Announcement: Changes to Fire-Lite & Silent Knight Detector Base Model Numbers

Please be advised that Honeywell Fire Solutions will be discontinuing several detector base models used with both Fire-Lite Alarms and Honeywell Silent Knight systems as of March 1, 2019. The replacement models are identical to the old models in every way but have a new part number to clearly indicate the color of the base since they are now offered in both ivory (IV) and white (WH) finishes. Just like the bases they're replacing, these new bases will work with both legacy and new Fire-Lite and Silent Knight ivory detectors.

We recommend notating/referencing the new part numbers in your purchasing system so customers looking for the old bases are redirected to the new base part numbers. All of these new models are already included in your latest Fire-Lite and Silent Knight price books and are available to order now.
